

White Columns

Best Art Shows of the Year By Jerry Saltz

NEW YORK

December 20, 2021–January 2, 2022 Print Year in Culture

7.

“From the Archives: White Columns & 112 Greene Street— 1970–2021”

White Columns

It may not be possible to overstate how consistently excellent White Columns has been since its inception in 1970. This gallery stays unpredictable and ahead of the curve. Its retrospective came in the form of invitations, old pics, letters, and paraphernalia tacked to the wall in a wraparound timeline, a magnificent testament to an institution that has never lost the thread.